Paterson 15 115mins Friday 11th May
From acclaimed director Jim Jarmusch (Dead Man, Down By Law) comes Paterson. A delicate, elegiac meditation on life and creativity featuring a brilliant performance from Adam Driver as the leading character. Paterson is a bus driver and aspiring poet. Paterson's wife Laura dreams of being a country music star and opening up a cupcake business. They live in Paterson, New Jersey, and Paterson tells the story of a week in their lives.
96% – Rotten Tomatoes
7.4/10 – IMDB
"Quiet, thoughtful and deeply human, this is one of Jarmusch's finest and features Adam Driver's best performance yet — although you do risk coming out with a new affection for modernist poetry."
"Paterson is an extraordinarily humane film about the creative process, told on the smallest scale possible."

New Sussex Opera presents Donizetti The Elixir of Love Fully staged, sung in English with professional soloists and orchestra. Life's a beach... and it's a beach on the Sussex coast in NSO's brilliant re-imagining of Donizetti's operatic masterpiece. While Director David Foster seizes every comic opportunity in a plot that mirrors the tangled webs we weave in love, we always know that this opera is comedy with a heart. The music is tuneful, light and accessible – exquisitely performed by the kind of young professionals NSO always attracts and who respond fully to Ben Knowles' musical direction. And they're supported by the talented NSO Chorus who relish every phrase of Donizetti's score and every comic twist in this unforgettable production. Saturday 26th May 7pm Tickets £20 (children and students £10) www.newsussexopera.org
